

GCSE English

Course leaders: Mrs A Goss & Mrs C Harris

Why study English?

To enable students who did not achieve a 'C' grade or above in Year 11 to achieve a subject demanded by most employers and all Higher Education Institutions.

What skills will I gain from studying English?

- How to write successfully in different Genres.
- How to respond to the demands of writing triplets.
- Confidence in speaking and listening.

How will I be assessed?

- 20% Written Coursework
- 20% Speaking and Listening
- 60% Examination

Where can English lead?

Successful completion of GCSE English Language will entitle students to progress onto AS level courses or vocational subjects.

To find employment in practically every area.

You will need a 'C' grade in GCSE English to gain entry to University.

What subjects link well with English?

- GCSE Mathematics
- Business Studies

What will I study?

- How to improve written coursework for Romeo and Juliet, Poetry and Creative Writing.
- Exam practice for both papers.